

Historic Deerfield

Step into Early New England

Explore 11 museum houses with trained guides, world-class collections of antiques, special exhibitions, and an outdoor garden and meadow walk (seasonal).

Experience early American life from the 1704 Deerfield Raid and the French and Indian War, to the American Revolution and the first decades of the new Republic.

Enjoy family programs and hands-on activities, special events, distinctive shopping, and café lunch—all in the heart of a 330-year-old village.

For the most up-to-date information about Historic Deerfield, including a complete list of current exhibitions, please visit www.historic-deerfield.org

New! Special Exhibitions

Now showing at the Flynt Center of Early New England Life

Into the Woods:

Crafting Early American Furniture

Learn about antique furniture from the inside out with a dazzling array of masterworks by famous American cabinetmakers including Duncan Phyfe and Honoré Lannuier, Samuel McIntire, John and Thomas Seymour, and John Townsend. On view through 2013.

Celebrating the Fiber Arts:

The Helen Geier Flynt Textile Gallery

Discover one of the finest collections of early American textiles ever assembled—including embroidery, woven silks, bed hangings, coverlets, quilts, costumes, and accessories from the 17th to the 19th century. Permanent with changing elements.

Directions: Historic Deerfield is located just 6 miles off I-91 (exit 24 North or exit 25 South) in Massachusetts.

Historic Deerfield

Opening Doorways To The Past.

80 Old Main Street, Deerfield, Mass. 01342

Information (including hours and directions) 413-775-7214

www.historic-deerfield.org • TTD 413-775-7264

Savor relaxed fine dining and lodging.

413-774-5587 • www.deerfieldinn.com

A portion of Historic Deerfield's operating funds is provided through a grant from the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency, and the Institute of Museum and Library Services, a federal agency that fosters innovation, leadership and a lifetime of learning.

