[] Please check here if you are applying for a stipend to offset lost summer income. The awards are limited and are reserved for students with demonstrated financial need. If you are applying for an award, please submit a statement explaining why you need assistance to attend the program. This statement should:

- Itemize your expenses, including tuition, books, room and board
- Itemize your sources of income, including your contribution, your family's contribution, and other sources of financial aid
- In addition, if you currently receive need-based aid from your college, please ask your college financial aid office to fill out the enclosed Award Authorization form.
- Or, if you do not currently receive need-based aid from your college and still wish to apply for an award, you must submit the first two pages of your parents' federal income tax return. Such information will be kept in the strictest confidence.

Mail all materials to: Joshua Lane, Director, Summer Fellowship Program, Historic Deerfield, Inc., PO Box 321, Deerfield, MA 01342. All application materials must be postmarked by February 26, 2010. Applicants will be notified in late March.
