

Historic Deerfield

Autumn 2011 • Volume 12 • ISSN 1535-2447

The Conservation of Historic Landscapes 2

Thomas Curren

5 Listening to the Past in an American Landscape

J. Ritchie Garrison

“Look to the Hills” 11

Margarita Curtis

13 The Case for Proactive Land Conservation in Deerfield

Thomas Curren & Richard K. Hubbard

Blame the Glacier 19

How Geologic Events Shaped the Lower Deerfield River Valley

Richard D. Little

24 A River Runs Through It

Photos from the 2011 Flood

Philip Zea and Allison W. Bell

Deerfield's Sheldon Family: Land, Farm, and Home 28

Amanda Rivera Lopez

35 What More Could a Tree Desire?

Faith Deering

Deerfield's Graveyards: From Burying Ground to Cemetery 39

Kevin Sweeney

44 Reinterpreting the Landscape: The Channing Blake Footpath

David Barclay

Picturing Deerfield, 1900-1920 46

Suzanne L. Flynt

51 To Form a More Perfect Deerfield

David Bosse

Front cover: Untitled painting showing Deerfield's North Meadows, Pocumtuck Ridge, and the Leyden Hills in the distance, by Stephen G. Maniatty, c. 1950. Courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Edson L. Bridges II. Photo by Cassandra Kirkpatrick